Many people do I meet every day,
Yet I cannot find a friend who will stay.
I want someone pleasant, strong,
Someone who will care even when I am wrong!

If you find such a friend,
Will he want to be your friend?
Will you be such a friend,
That you want for a friend?

I want someone who will care for my need:
In all of my pain, a true friend in deed!
You want someone, always there?
You may not be pleased, if he does truly care!

If you find such a friend,
Will you want to be his friend?
Will you be such a friend,
That he wants for a friend?

I know someone who does know all my need:

In all of my life, a true Friend indeed!

He cares truly, refining me:

He brings me through pain, so that I may be free!

If you want such a Friend,
You must seek to be His friend.
Will you be such a friend
That He wants as His friend?
